Numb. 5173

The Daily Courant.

Wednesday, May 21. 1718.

From the Haerlem Courant, dated May 26.

Vienna, May 11.

IT is ſpoken with great Aſſurance, that the Differences between this Court and that of Turin will ſuddenly be accommodated, and that the Duke of Savoy has named, and even ſent away the Count de Tortona to come to this Court, and put the laſt Hand to the Treaty.

Ratisbon, May 16. Baron van Roth, Governour of Fort Kehl, has again written to the Diet, and his Letter was on Saturday laſt publickly read there, earneſtly deſiring a ſpeedy Remittance of Money, without which, all the Coſt already beſtow'd upon that Fortreſs will be thrown away, by Reaſon that the Rhine will waſh away the Works, as they now ſtand unfiniſhed.

From the Amſt. Gazette, dated May 24.

Dreſden, May 17. On the 12th Inſtant, the King's Birth-day was celebrated at Court, with great Magnificence. The Counteſs de Denhoff made on that Occaſion a ſumptuous Feaſt, at which were preſent the Pope's Nuncio, the Envoys of the Czar, and the King of France, the Senators of Poland who are here, and many other Perſons of Quality. His Majeſty the King of Poland our Elector, ſet out from hence for Torgau two Days ago, from whence 'tis ſaid he will this Day go to Leipſick, but 'tis expected he will return hither in a Week's time, to receive the Addreſs of the States concerning the Subſidies they have reſolv'd to give for the Subſiſtance of the Troops, &c. 'Tis ſaid the States will ſeparate the 26th, and that the King will depart the 28th for Reuſſen, to give Audience to the Ambaſſadour from the Ottoman Porte. In the mean time, the Queen is going two Days hence to Bourg Bernheim, in the Marquiſate of Bareuth, to make uſe of the Baths there. The 6000 Men of our Troops who are to ſerve in Hungary, continue their March thither. General Janus d'Eberſtedt, Governour of this City, died this Morning at four a Clock.

Hamburgh, May 20. 'According to the Letters from Petersburg, the Ceremonial, and the 'Manner of negociating between the Miniſters of 'the King of Sweden and the Czar, is regulated, 'and they are already aſſembled at Aland, to be-'gin the Conferences. The Czar inſiſts upon ha-'ving a Port in Eſthonia in Place of Revel, which 'is to be diſmantled, and when he has agreed up-'on that with the King of Sweden, he will invite 'the Northern Allies to a Congreſs at Dantzick, 'pretending to ſign no Peace before the Allies 'have obtain'd their Conditions alſo. Baron 'Gortz ſends Word to one of his Friends, by a 'Letter dated at Stockholm, April the 23d, that 'he was going to Aland, to put the laſt Hand to 'the Peace with the Czar, and that afterwards he 'hoped to ſee him in Mecklemburg. The Duke 'of that Name, ſeeing that he could not obtain 'his End by the Oath which he exacted from the 'Nobility, has ſummon'd the States to meet in a 'Diet to be held the next Month; but there is 'little Appearance that any body will come to it. 'They write from Dantzick, that the Magiſtrates 'of that City, notwithſtanding the ſevere Threat-'nings of the Ruſſians, that their Troops ſhould 'again enter their Territories, if they agreed not 'to the Demands of the Czar, have anſwer'd, that 'things muſt ſtand where they are, and that they 'will engage for Nothing till they have before-'hand received the Reſolution of his Poliſh Ma-'jeſty, upon what they have written to him con-'cerning it.

Hague, May 24. 'The Miniſters of France and 'Great-Britain continue very much to preſs this 'State upon the Subject of their Acceſſion to the 'Plan of Accommodation for the Affairs of Italy. 'Tis expected at the Return of the Earl of Ca-'dogan, and the Aſſembly of the States of Hol-'land, to ſee the Succeſs of this Sollicitation. 'The Holſtein Counſellour M. Fabritius, has 'made uſe of the Yacht the Lord Cadogan 'came over in, and is gone for London. The 'States General have received a Letter from Count 'Colyers, their Ambaſſadour at the Porte, dated 'at Niſſa, wherein he ſends them a Tranſlation of 'the Order of the Grand Sultan, to the Regencies 'of Algiers, Tunis, and Tripoli; which Order en-'joins them, upon Pain of his higheſt Diſplea-'ſure, to abſtain from all Acts of Hoſtility againſt 'the Ships belonging to the Subjects of their 'High Mightineſſes, and to renew the Peace with 'them. The ſaid Ambaſſadour alſo ſends 'Word, that the principal Miniſters of the Grand 'Seignior wiſh ſo much for Peace, that there is 'Reaſon to believe the Conferences between the 'Imperial and Ottoman Plenipotentiaries, will 'end in a Peace, and that he hopes to have the 'Honour in a ſhort time, to congratulate their 'High Mightineſſes upon the happy Iſſue of theſe 'Conferences; to which purpoſe, he deſires them 'to ſend him forthwith the original full Powers, 'which are to authorize him to ſign the Peace, in 'Conjunction with the Miniſters of his Britannick 'Majeſty, as Mediators; from whence 'tis conclu-'ded, that the Secretary de la Fontaine, who is 'charg'd with thoſe full Powers, is not yet arriv'd 'there. That Ambaſſadour aſks Leave of the 'States, to accept certain Preſents which are offer'd 'him by the Grand Vizier, no Ambaſſadour of 'this State in Foreign Courts, being allow'd to ac-'cept any Preſents without a ſpecial Permiſſion from 'their High Mightineſſes. Count Colyers adds, 'that Prince Ragotski ſeeing that no more Atten-'tion was given to his Repreſentations and Solli-'citations for continuing the War, was privately 'withdrawn, and no body knows whether he is 'gone; 'tis ſaid the Caimacan adviſ'd him to do 'ſo, foreſeeing that the Imperial Court will, in 'the Courſe of the Negociation, demand that he 'be delivered up, if it were known that he re-'mained in the Dominions of the Ottoman Em-'pire. The Earl of Cadogan is juſt now return'd 'from Amſterdam.

This Day is Published,

A Letter sent to Mr. James Shepheard, whilst Prisoner in Newgate, persuading him to repent of his Design to Murder the King: Shewing, I By a short Essay upon the Original Nature and Progress of Civil Government, that his Majesty's Title to the Monarchy of Great Britain, is agreeable to the very End of Government it self, to the Right of the Dividical Line in that Government, which was more immediately establish'd by God himself, to the Notion of the Primitive Christians in the first Christian Empire of the World, to the Constitution of Old England, and most Christian and other Polite Governments in the Universe. II From the Instances of Saul and Ishbosheth, and from many Texts of Scripture, that the Persons of Sovereign Princes are guarded by the express Laws of God from the Insults of all private Persons whatsoever, whether their own Subjects or others. III That the Oath of Allegiance taken to any former King or Queen of England, binds the Conscience of him that took it, to perform the Contents thereof to his present Majesty King George. By Capt Richard Dunning of Stampford-Courtney in Devon, Author of the Sentiments of the Western Tories, publish'd at the Beginning of the late Rebellion. Printed for J. Roberts in Warwick lane.
